VI. COMMENTARY

Illinois FFA Food & Vet Science CDEs went very well this year, and the industry partnerships I have developed have indicated they wish to partner next year to host an invitational Food CDE when the state contest moves to SIU. Registrations were up for the District Ag Science Fair. At this time most schools have completed their course enrollments and only three remain to enter. I look forward to the programmer finishing the development of the College Database system so we can begin to gather college data. As E-learning progresses I am frequently contacted by both Ag and non-Ag CTE teachers to get logins and assistance with utilizing this resource.
